

Warrior Title Hopes Reach All-Time Low

With hopes of a Metropolitan Conference baseball championship almost faded, the El Camino College Warriors will take on the always dangerous Los Angeles Valley Monarchs on the Valley Field, Friday at 3 p.m.

Larry Hankhammer will be going for his sixth straight Metro win without a defeat for the Camino crew. Hank is a strong bet for all-conference honors this year.

After a busy week end in San Diego, where they split with the Knights, the Warrior pennant hopes reached an all-time low for the year.

San Diego, in the meantime, took three out of four games over the week end. This puts the SDJC team two games ahead of the Warriors with smooth sailing ahead, the Knights having tallied a double win over East LA on Saturday and clinched a tie for first.

Meet Seahawks

After Valley, the Warriors will take on powerful Santa Monica in a makeup game. On May 16, the cellar-dwelling Harbor Seahawks will come to Warriorville to close the season.

Coach Chuck Freeman had to play checkers with his 12 baseball players to have enough to finish the season. With players dropping from the squad due to ineligibility, Freeman did not know how many would appear from day to day.

Iron man catcher Steve Nicks has lasted the entire season without injury and will have performed an outstanding feat if he finishes the year unhurt.

San Diego Series

In the San Diego series, Hankhammer stumped the Knights in the first game, 5-1. With Ron Bruckner doing the damage at the plate, the Warriors had no trouble after the first inning.

In the second game, the San Diego team jumped on three Camino hurlers for 7 runs to swamp the Warriors 7 to 1.

George Shediak started for the Camino team and was relieved by Ron Bruckner in the third, in turn, Bruckner gave way to Larry Olekiewicz, who finished the game.

Beverly Hills Downs North High Golfers

The Saxon golf squad at North High finally got knocked off Cloud Nine, but it took a strong Beverly Hills team playing on their home course to do it.

The Saxons had their wings clipped 37½ to 16½ for the first defeat this season. Both Beverly Hills and North High now sport an 8-1 league record. The Normans bowed to the Saxons in a previous tilt.

The Northmen weren't at their best Monday as the first four men on the team dropped their rounds 6½ to 2½.

Low man for the locals was Steve Crowell who had a 40.

Saxons will again see league action Friday when they meet the cellar dwellers from Hawthorne on the Western Ave. course.

Swim Pools On Increase

Time was, Torrance old-timers will tell you, when anyone in town could tell you where all the private swimming pools were (probably all three of them) and could probably tell you who was apt to be using them at any given time.

Not any more, according to figures of the city's building department.

Construction of swimming pools is getting to be a commonplace item among the city's permit clerks. Just last month, as an example, permits were issued for five swimming pools, to be located in all parts of the city.

Tartar Crew Falls In Three-Way League Tie

Torrance's chances of taking second place and entering the CIF playoffs grew slimmer Tuesday as the streaky Tartars bowed to Santa Monica 6-1 at Viking Field and fell into a three way tie for third place along with Mira Costa and Samohi. Vike right hander Frank Myers handcuffed the Tartars on one hit and had a no-hitter going until the fifth when outfielder Gary Pfingston lined a fast ball into left field for THS' only safety blow.

Losing pitcher Paul Moir stymied the Samohi hitters until the third inning when two singles, a walk and a sacrifice pushed two runs across the plate.

The Vikings sewed up things in the fourth when 3 runners scampered home on only one hit and three walks, with a pair of sacrifices.

It was Moir's fourth Bay League loss against one win:
